Linking the frameworks of experience and purpose via motivation.

Basic motivations link experience and purpose; ethical aspirations link approaches to ethical choice with approaches to identity development; and ethical dispositions link ethical rules and the natural moral institutions of society. See text for further details and explanation.

	TYPES of ETHICAL RULE	Ethical Dispositions	NATURAL MORAL INSTITUTIONS
Level 7"	Absolute	Autonomy	Organized Religion	Level VII"
Level 6"	Law	Obedience	Governance System	Level VI"
Level 5"	Maxim	Virtue	Ethical Teaching	Level V"
Level 4"	Right	Respect	Social Structure	Level IV"
Level 3"	Tenet	Dedication	Communal Ideals	Level III"
Level 2"	Convention	Conformity	Popular Morality	Level II"
Level 1"	Prescription	Meticulousness	Formal Etiquette	Level I"
	APPROACHES to ETHICAL CHOICE	Ethical Aspirations	APPROACHES to IDENTITY DEVELOPMENT
System 7'	Transcendentalist	Spirituality	Transpersonal	System VII'
System 6'	Legitimist	Common Good	Social	System VI'
System 5'	Communalist	Altruism	Relational	System V'
System 4'	Individualist	Strength	Individual	System IV'
System 3'	Pragmatist	Ideals	Emotional	System III'
System 2'	Conventionalist	Continuity	Vital	System II'
System 1'	Rationalist	Solutions	Sensory	System I'
	FRAMEWORK of PURPOSE	Basic Motivations	FRAMEWORK of EXPERIENCE
Level 7	Ultimate Value	Inspiration	Imagination	Level VII
Level 6	Value System	Obligation	Identification	Level
Level 5	Social Value	Need	Intuition	Level V
Level 4	Principal Object	Interest	Idea	Level IV
Level 3	Internal Priority	Desire	Emotion	Level III
Level 2	Strategic Objective	Intention	Image	Level II
Level 1	Tactical Objective	Awareness	Sensation	Level I